Tick tack watching the clock
Seconds as they fade
Is there anybody out there
Anybody left to save
I've been listening to the world
The only thing she said
Is you gotta make it back
You got so many things undid

Seems like the beginning
(Seems like the beginning)
Always has something
To do with the end
I'm getting way too comfortable
In this open water
And I don't know how to swim
No water wings, don't have a boat
But a tidal wave
Keeps bringing me to shore

Spray as they ain't frozen
Still wish I could hold them
How am I gonna make it high
She never shared my s-s-secrets
Now they know my tricks
And they know what makes me sick
If I ever make it out of this
I'll never lose my way

Seems like the beginning
(Seems like the beginning)
Always has something
To do with the end
I'm getting way too comfortable
In this open water
And I don't know how to swim
No water wings, don't have a boat
But a tidal wave
Keeps bringing me to shore

Seems like the beginning

(Seems like the beginning)
Always has something
To do with the end
I'm getting way too comfortable
In this open water
And I don't know how to swim
No water wings, don't have a boat
But a tidal wave
Keeps bringing me to shore

I'm getting way too comfortable
In this open water
No water wings, don't have a boat
But a tidal wave
Keeps bringing me to shore

I'm getting way too
I'm getting way too
No water wings, don't have a boat
But a tidal wave
Keeps bringing me to shore
