Illusions are better than despair
And I keep fooling myself
I just wanna escape from this nightmare
Not with a loud noise, not by stealth

[Pre-chorus]

Come at me and fight
[You gonna make it now]
Or give up all your tries
[To punish me somehow]

I used to have a friend
[You were a friend of mine]
Now I don't give a damn
About your

[Chorus]

"Everything's alright
Nothing's gonna grieve you"
But life is passing by
And I do believe you

[Verse]

You never want to hurt me so
Just want to hide all the truth
But I prefer a strong attack from the front
To backstabbing like you do

[Pre-chorus]

[Chorus]

She said:
"Everything's alright
Nothing's gonna grieve you"
But life is passing by
Like a fool I do believe you
