Tonight I called out you're name
The thought of you
Was carried on the wind
And it echoed thru the canyon like a train
Winding on home to me again
I can almost touch your face
It's almost like your never went away

Chorus:

Everywhere I go
I can feel you all around me
In the sunrise, in the moonlight
I breathe you in like the air
You're everywhere
I walked thru the forest green
Far from all the chaos and the noise
And the river she sangs to me
I could swear it sounded like you're voice

There to comfort me

Soothing as a gentle breeze

Chorus:

Everywhere I go
I can feel you all around me
In the sunrise, in the moonlight
I breathe you in like the air
You're everywhere

Everywhere I go

I can feel you all around me
In the sunrise, in the moonlight
I breathe you in like the air
Oh I breathe you in like the air
You're everywhere
