I've seen your dreams get broken
I've heard your words unspoken
And sometimes hope is layin' low
Hidden in the ashes
Left after the fire

Chorus:

In my heart I see you run free
Like a river down to the sea
All the chains that held you down
Will be in pieces on the ground
You'll drink the rain and ride the wind to me

I've seen a faithless lover
Take you down to deep water
And I have watched a fragile wing
Tangled up in longings get broken in the struggle

Chorus:

In my heart I see you run free
Like a river down to the sea
All the chains that held you down
Will be in pieces on the ground
You'll drink the rain and ride the wind to me

Someday your tears will turn to daimonds
With a kiss you'll wake to see
That you're strong at the broken places
I know someday you'll go free

Chorus:

In my heart I see you run free
Like a child you were ment to be
All the chains that held you down
Will be in pieces on the ground
You'll drink the rain and ride the wind to me
