I want a chip off the old block I want a girl who I can talk to Stumblin' through your neighborhood defacing walls just like I should

Ooh, I wanted to be you, dirty like the skies
you live in space, your life's a waste like mine
so let's just stop, before we die
I know you don't care at all but what if right before the end we quit, Now why don't we just stop before we die

We saw our names in the lights Chasing dragons through Ringing bells on quiet afternoons Sand box heros we lonley fools

Oh, I wanted to be you take that and put it on lips like mine Cause here in space we're wasting all our time
So let's just stop, before we die
I know you don't care at all but what if right before the end we quit, now die and tell the truth, but don't you lie and tell the truth, before we die

(I always needed love)
All I needed was love (Was love)
(I always wanted you)
All I needed was you (Was you)

Ooh, I wanted to be you, dirty like the skies
you live in space, your life's a waste like mine
so let's just stop, before we die
I know you don't care at all
but what if right before the end we quit,
Lets try and what if there and its darkness before the light Come on the me your truth cause you see I told you mine
Oh lets just stop before we die (Before we die)
