When time goes by, splash splash
Your heavy lips, drip drip
Our bodies they, crash crash
And rain down a big bloody shower
How we share the sun
The sun shares the moon
I share your love
And we share the tune
However
We'll push up the flowers

We hold it tight
We hope it stays
We watch it as it floats away
We never want to see the day
We watch it as it floats away

Heavy lips, drip drip
Into the dirt, splash splash
Refraction reflections
Are draggin in water
The dots in connection
Bleeding at the alter
Faces to feces
And your true love
The last bastien from death
And know with your final breath
I love you I love you

We hold the tide
We hope it stays
We watch it as it floats away
We never want to see the day
We watch it as it floats away

We hold it tight
We hope it stays
We watch it as it floats away
We never want to see the day
We watch it as it floats away
