This is kissing the trash
This is fingering the ash
This is eating out the mud
Standing from atop the stage I see the starving hands
I finally turned on the lights and turned into a man
They say some fear they have to kill for our great lives
And some they have to steal if they want to survive
Hey
Someday
You'll cry and sine your life away
Hey
Some they say
Oh why did you sine your life away
Here three million dead in the foreign land
Me killing you in a serious trance
Take off and find some shelter for natural change
When our institutions crumble and leave us strange
Hey
Someday
You'll cry and sine your life away
Hey
Some they say
Oh why did you sine your life away
Hey
Someday
You'll cry and sine your life away
Hey
Some they say
Oh why did you sine your life away
This is kissing the trash
This is fingering the ash
This is eating out the mud
This is the land I love
This is kissing the trash
This is fingering the ash
This is eating out the mud
This is the land I love
This is kissing the trash
This is fingering the ash
This is eating out the mud
This is the land I love
This is kissing the trash

This is fingering the ash
This is eating out the mud
This is the land I love
This is kissing the trash
This is fingering the ash
This is eating out the mud
This is fingering your ash
This is eating out the mud
