In the dead of night beneath pale moonlight
In a field filled with fear and wonder
Lies a troubled place where souls are displaced
And the air is so cold and somber

Each night they rise again to fight once more
Ghastly soldiers of the civil war

Sounds of crashing steel earthly battlefield
Behold a scene that will make you shudder

Lost in between
Why can't they see their war is over?
Hard to believe
If they don't bleed how do they really know?

Each night they rise again to fight once more
Ghastly soldiers of the civil war

Just before dawn breaks comes the final wave
The last battalion's vain endeavor

Lost in between
Why can't they see their war is over?
Hard to believe
If they don't bleed how do they really know?

Each night they rise again to fight once more
Ghastly soldiers of the civil war

One by one they fade back beyond the grave
Shrieking screams that will make you shiver

Lost in between
Why can't they see their war is over?
Hard to believe
If they don't bleed how do they really know?
How do they really know?
