"Freefall"

i choke on an anti-thesis came midway past this song that leases a little bliss i though i was over this we are phrases less spoken abbreviated most of the time hallucination chambered well in my mind never on a rainy day

to freefall
never on a run down day
to freefall
tailend of a night gone crazy some favors never taken easy is it over? still together? i thought we were over this we are faces-erased so appreciated, not of this time regained emotions still linger when its gone leave your ambition no other time but now to wait for the freefall
