all seats are taken
when you're having fun
i'm the least of your priorities, you go and leave me hanging while i make all the wishes and im bound to explain what's been done here

i call all the time
and burn all the lines just to hear you. but you're leaving!

you say you wanna be right in the midst of this fight.

standing room only.
im just a face in this crowd you say you wanna live your life alone

i can't help but worry when you've gambled all the aces and i'm trapped into saying i want you back!
