La La La La...

La La La La...

I understand you feel that I get tired of looking after you

You even start to think that I've been meaning

To do this to you

If you only knew how much of me wants to tell you

All this passes...

Take your time, reconsider (til I find my place in you)

Take your time to let your ache go away.

No harm done, you're under repair.

No harm done, you're under repair.

No harm done, you're under repair.

La La La La...

La La La La...

Sick and tired of taking the mellow beating of the stupid games we play.

We run around but I'm done needing this hurt

I've stayed too long but I'm taking you with me

You're too beautiful to be seen here

No harm done, you're under repair.

No harm done, you're under repair.

No harm done, you're under repair.
