I wrote you long love letters, Mama, I sent 'em on day by day
Need you now even more than I did before As I'm lookin', here's your Daddy comin'
With a big ole shotgun too Lovin' situtation look mighty poor So if'in you're really wonderin' what I'm doin' in your backyard
I told you ,Baby, I'd beat it home so soon But if you're really worrin' 'bout what I' m doin' in your backyard
Come on out later I'll show you by the light of the moon
I had some dreams and fortune really, Mama, I got carried away
And lookin' back even more than I did before As I'm leapin' , creepin', hidin', sleepin' here's your Daddy with a shotgun too
My lovin' situtation ain't nothin' but poor So if'in you're really worried 'bout what I'm doin' in your backyard
I told you, Baby, I's beatin' it home so soon Well if you're really worrin' 'bout what I' m doin' in your backyard
Come on out later I'll show you by the light of the moon Baby, thinkin' 'bout reelin' back, wonderin' why I'm standin' here cryin', Honey, lookin' in your backyard Don't ya worry 'bout nothin', ya got nothin' on your mind but me
But as I'm layin' on my back about, thinkin' 'bout summertime gettin' back all the way Everything I see, Honey, reminding me Come on get your lovin' man, come on get him while he's hot, get him on the run Babe, I here your lookin' but really too blind to see, oh, hey, What ya gonna think About wham-bam, thank you Maam, where you goin' on the Wildwood trail
Everything I see, Honey, reminding me
Baby, might be thinkin' 'bout, really livin' back, layin' back, standin' in your backyard Told you, Baby, I's beatin' it home so soon If you're really wonderin' what I' m doin' in your

backyard
Come on out later, Babe, I'll show you by the light of the moon
