And she calls herself Aphrodite
She'll make you feel high and mighty
She got she got she got a goddess complex
And she knows just how you like it she's so
She's so unusual but she's sad and lonely
Acting real phony, just listen to what she says

Baby step in line for my love
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind; I'm an original
Baby step in life for my love
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind; I'm an original
And I heard she reeled you in with her song
Song of the siren, but you couldn't
You couldn't you couldn't you couldn't restrain yourself
And you left her there, because all is fair when you get some
She wipes her tears away as she calls to the next one

Baby step in life for my love,
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind I'm an original
Baby step in line for my love
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind I'm an original

My love is fictional; I can be an original
I can give you what you need
I can play make believe
Ecstasy I will be your fantasy
It don't bother me

Baby step in line for my love
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind; I'm an original
Baby step in line for my love
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind, I'm and original
