verse 1:

i don't know what going on in this world where living alone
so much poverty
all around me
this is insanity
that surrounds me
distant worlds seem so far away people's lives changing everyday(oh nooo)

chorus:

keep on seeing the sun days out but soon or later she will see gray clouds the tears are falling
the voice is calling
out for you
but i can hear the rain fall

verse 2:

i don't know when you and i
we'll stop walking(yeah)
passing bye
so much in the west
then my eyes see
my experience
can not blind me
distant worlds
seem so far from here
seasons changed
and the rain is near (oh nooo)

chorus 2x

ooooooooohhhhhhhhhh!
keep on feeling!

game:

yo yo

rain beatin' on my window pane playin mr blue suns out but the rain clouds are blocking my view i hope it's true
often the clouds comes the storm after storm now there gone and moved on we awaked the day
yea i'm coming for it
the rain confronted
we left some gravel in it shades of gray
holding it down for a minute but that don't stop me
we wanna go platinum
yo yall know me man freaky tello yo
??????(something in jaimacian)

chorus 2x

can u, can u, feel the rain can u hear the rain
can u see the rain
can u feel the rain
can u hear the rain fall
