Truly my father's son.
Truly faithful to no one.
Mistakes made effortless.
Temptation is a force like gravity holding onto me.
The rain that falls wont slow me down.
Held my head so high i may drown.
Retracing my steps back up speedway.
Retracing the lines run down your face.
Forgiveness please. forgive me.

I can see from the scars on our shoes we haven't fallen far from our roots.
I'd have wings if i was meant to fly.
Driving and screaming while i cry.
It's not good enough.
Sounds so shallow.
Repeated and echoed.
Every repetition losing your attention.
I would so quickly now give up what i wouldn't then.
