Out in the black night
Cold Northern breeze

Under the red sky
Surrounded by blasphemous winds

Midnight passing and the moon is fulfilled
Slowly blackening the sky

I summon up where the ravens fly high
Towards the moon of Blashyrkh

Death rides on black wings
Evil enter the sky
Angels falls from the heavens
While tile darkness shines through

Chariots of the darkest masters
Arrives on devil wings
Heaven's angels surrounded by fog
Forces through the holocaust frozen clouds

A twisted wind
Rapes the clouds

Memories of cold days
In lightning return

Blacker than darkness
Blacker than darkness

A packy foggy fullmoon night
Into darkness rides

Under the horned goa tmoon
As dark as black rivers at winter time

December moon come to me
I ride the wings of Torment
Blacker than darkness
