...It's Easier to Act than be Yourself...
...We're all Individuals, Will we Stay that Way?...

See...Feel...Inside of Me...Deep

Countless times I have heard it, Hide yourself and think naive...

Do not let them take you down, Soul inside you is your own...

Falling into the Arms of Selfpity.
Denying Yourself won't Solve Anything.
From my Belief I have find Strenght to Live.
I do how I Feel and Behold: I am Me...

...We are all Masters of Life, Every single One of Us...
...Christ as my Paragon I am Lord of my Life...

See...Feel...Inside of Me...Deep

Be brave and don't hold back, In grave it's too late for that.

Be yourself don't compromise, This world ain't black or white.

Falling into the Arms of Selfpity.
Denying Yourself won't Solve Anything.
From my Belief I have find Strenght to Live.
I do how I Feel and Behold: I am Me...
