Cold wind of north, the killers breathe.
I hear the thunder from somewhere far.
I feel the wave and scent of a grave.
As I see darkness spread on the sky.
Oh - Madness imperial, gravetown, dark side of human mind.
Oh - Kingdom millennial, gravetown of the atomic age.
After the fall - where do you crawl, when lights are dim.
After the sin - nuclear winter, bleak is the day and the
end is nigh.
After the fall - A new winter dawn.
Black trees sway in the cold breeze.
Landscape of my fragmented mind.
After a while this Autumn is gone.
And shades of winter bury the land.
Oh - Madness imperial, gravetown, dark side of human mind.
Oh - Kingdom millennial, gravetown of the atomic age.
After the fall - where do you crawl, when lights are dim.
After the sin - nuclear winter, bleak is the day and the
end is nigh.
After the fall - A new winter dawn.
After the fall - where do you crawl, when lights are dim.
After the sin - nuclear winter, bleak is the day and the
end is nigh.
After the fall - new winter dawn, scour my soul, deep from within.
Nuclear winter, bleak was the day that turned to night.
After the fall - A new winter dawn.
