Hold your head down in a ducking pond
See how I breathe the bubbles
Pick a few stars out for a cloudy night

I could tame damien
My love infectious bites you
I have a pocket sun boy
I'm everything that burns in you

Yeah in my evergreen day, in my beautiful day
In my element day, I know I can feel the dawn
In my evergreen day, in my beautiful day
I know I can feel the dawn

Peel the skin of love and lay it on me
My window wide and open
Free fall from the moon
My earth, my friend will catch me

I'm a carbonator
I'm the fizz for all I want to be

I'll free the sword
I'm the killer for all that hurts in me

In my evergreen day, in my beautiful day
In my element day, I know I can feel the dawn
In my evergreen day, in my beautiful day
I know I can feel the dawn

Faint reminders of the rerun flicks of old days
Caught in iron till it melts and bleeds them life

In my evergreen day, in my beautiful day
In my element day, I know I can feel the dawn
In my evergreen day, in my beautiful day
I know I can feel the dawn, feel the dawn
In my evergreen day x6
I know I can feel the dawn
