All that I am is what this promise means
You are the only thing that's left for me
And what might keep me, falls to a second place
When I remember what you give for me

All that I have, all that you've given me
My heart was empty, life was killing me
Gave you my body and you gave me love
I swear my everything, you're not just all I have You're all I need

You're not just all I have, you're all I need
You're not just all I have

I mean these words
More than I've ever meant anything before
I mean these words
More than I've ever meant anything before

I mean these words
You're all that I need
I mean these words
You're all that I need

You're not just all I have
You're all that I need
You're not just all I have
You're all that I need

I mean these words
You're all that I need
I mean these words
You're all that I need

You're all that I need
You're all that I need
