Cyberflesh, cyberflesh, cyberflesh

I don't know if I can look at you anymore
Cause you just take my mind with visions I adore

From his domain he's dialing up the net and his eyes begin to feed
There's a photo of the line and a video selling lust and vanity
With a touch of his fingers and a credit card
The magic begins to brew
Inticing the passions of a million men
It's got a hold on you

Chorus:

Falling into the world of cyberflesh, cyberflesh
Vision's will stay awake in you, cyberflesh
Burning into your mind the thrill of lust, cyberflesh
Pulling you down into the whole, cyberflesh

When you open your eyes up to the game
It will lock you on the screen
It's a picture in your mind that awakens you
No one can intervene
Memories of the image will be haunting you
Waiting to appear
Selling pleasure for your eyes and a fantasy
Across the new frontier

Chorus
