"Lost In The Rain"

Visit "Lost In The Rain" on MotoLyrics.com

They bring on the night the sun slowly fading away nothing will tame
the nightmare that runs through your day

Still you remain, Lost in the rain with nothing to gain, Lost in the rain.

You never come down you never stop running away fall to your knees they control you whatever you say

You're Lost in the rain with nothing to gain, you're Lost in the rain

When will you learn your life's quickly slipping away Break from your chains free yourself before it's too late

Still you remain, Lost in the rain, with nothing gain
Lost in the rain
You're Lost in the rain, with nothing to gain You're Lost in the rain!
