

Imperative Reaction "Drown"

Your words disguise what you're feeling now
But I've seen that look in your eyes before
Though you don't want to admit it to me
I feel the disappointment I have caused you

If I drown
Please know it's not your fault
There was no way you could save me from myself
If I drown
Please know it wasn't you
I was the one who walked away from your help

I know it's been years of empty promises
I wanted to follow through I wanted to be more
Though you don't want to admit it to me
You can't look at me in the same light anymore
