Electrified angel with dark eyes
Where's my jewels tonight
I've been drinking whiskeys for hours
Feels tonight is time
There's a war in my head babe
I feel like Jesus when he was in pain
I've robbed all my pockets for you
Disappeared on your train
Come on my queen my release please
Come on my queen my release
You keep me running out in the rain
You keep me running out in the rain
You keep me running out in the rain
I'm a beggar your humble servant
Your napalm paradise
Just take my hand my angel
I'll be your soldier tonight
Come on my queen my release please
Come on my queen my release
You keep me running out in the rain
You keep me running out in the rain
You keep me running out in the rain
Gotta get your love into my veins
You disappear in your chinese robe
It'll drive me insane
Electrified angel with dark eyes
I need a ticket to the train
Come on my queen my release please
Come on my queen my release
You keep me running out in the rain
You keep me running out in the rain
You keep me running out in the rain
Gotta get your love into my veins
