Held our breath for a long time
Never thought these days would come to end
And then we'd have to let them go
Force fed and sleepless Never thought we'd learn love the road, the ride, the time it took away
But here's our return
One more chance to push each other down

Tested our limits
Pushed so hard that we broke in two
And you are broken to this day
Double-crossed and lied to
I still lack parts that have clung to you
And through it all I've ignored the pain
But here's our return
One more chance of sharing the rest of our

Days move slowly
Weeks spent lonely
Years waiting for your return

We have come so far in years
A part of me will always be a part of you
