Like a ton of bricks it hits
Before she finishes her sentence
As the predicate predicts
A swift ending to her presence
I could see it coming from a mile away
At six hundred miles an hour
A surprise attack, a Tora Tora kamikaze (Tora Tora!)
No looking back
A tactic of considerable power, woah
It doesn't matter now what I should have done then
My heart was in the right place at the wrong time again
In close to half a second my composure was lost
And I had found my modesty
"Everything not in the dumpster was otherwise tossed,"
..Her voice lacking sincerity
It doesn't matter now what I should have done then
My heart was in the right place at the wrong time again
(A phone call is made at midnight
That won't let her fall asleep
The ringer's turned off
But she can hear the answering machine)
It's you plus me divided by inadequacy times my denial
Minus three words that were thrown around and around
And a why can doo mang ing tang duaplan
If you want to get away you'll have to go through me
Or walk over my dead body and you just may
The ship is sinking, I'm the captain, there's no escape
If you want to get away you're gonna hafta go through Meeeehey!
