Half life of oxygen
Spent breathing homesick air
Tearing my heart apart
Yours ticks without a tear
Slow down
I haven't moved at all
The cold can't kill us
But we won't survive the fall

Slipping, Falling away
Hold on day to day
Slipping, Falling away
Hold on day to day
Slipping, Falling away
Hold on day to day
Year to year
From here to there

Poison my speaking voice
With half truths and denials
Converting oxygen
By living, breathing, suffering, screaming

Slipping, Falling away
Hold on day to day
Slipping, Falling away
Hold on day to day
Slipping, Falling away
Hold on day to day
Year to year
From here to there

We can. We can't. We will. We will. We won't.

We can. We can't. We can. We can. We can.

Slow down.

We can. We can't. We will. We will. We won't.

We can. We can't. We can. We can't. We can.

Slow down.
