

Impossibles "Stopping Sound"

Visit "Stopping Sound" on MotoLyrics.com

Last lines for today the tired words you're too tired to say mattered more in the dream you lived in too long the last chance good idea that always turns out wrong in the end lose track of days and slip into a total haze knocked out of tune, a thousand times inside this room Looking up at the stars glued above the back seat of your car settled down, holding still to see what you find it's enough to pass the time, and barely get you by in the fleeting moments just close your eyes and sleep away the every night wake up to feel brand new, a second look to see the best of you
