My world is crumbling, beneath my feet.
I've got a poison that I can't seem to defeat.
My brain, misshapen, has become so weak
You've got the antidote I die to seek.
Save me brother, cuz' I don't wanna die
Before I'm stuck here in this hole for life.

My world is ending, what the fuck should I do?
I had so much but now I have so few.

My world is crumbling, beneath my feet.
I've got a poison that I can't seem to defeat.
My brain, misshapen, has become so weak
You've got the antidote I die to seek.
Save me brother, cuz' I don't wanna die
Before I'm stuck here in this hole for life.

Falling through the cracks, I'm fading...fading away.
Back stabbed, betrayed, been broken in ways I can't
