She hides it in the dayroom
She keeps it from the bridegroom
What does it mean?
Her words are never seen
She keeps me here and in her dreams
She plans her best kept secrets
It's always me who's in it
The bonfire glows
Who knows how far she'll go
Just one look and then she'll know
One look at her diary
One look at her diary
I saw her diary underneath a tree
I started reading all about me
She keeps it in the day room
She hides it from the bridegroom
What does it mean?
Her words are never seen
She keeps me here and in her dreams
One look at her diary
One look at her diary
One look at her diary
One look at her diary
