Amor smelled the black
you read the book of laws
and in your prigishness
you believe to control
the game with the great unknown
the sun shall never rise
for you

With mind embraced by fire I call the summon thee mighty ones behind the barriers lurking in the astral spheres

Cut my soul in half take this gift from me spawn of the unlight

you are blessed knowledge sealed the lips of prayers

fuck you...
