Last night the demon spoke to me
last night the demon spoke
Abysmal beings will eclipse the sun they will rise in torment abysmal beings will eclipse the sun to rise in torment

Human soul covered in flesh now listen carefully your truth lays before me drawn in blood she is
For your defeat
I lie in wait
gall sweating
and vermented

I saw your beginning the fleshrace was born I've watched all the bleeding and tasted that sweet gore to absorb all living that never should be given
to rise my claws in agony from the abyss
from the abyss

Yes, it comes from the abyss
