Come...

Come from the night

Come from the sea

With all the nymphs and satyrs

It's on me, on me

Oh, precious God

Existence aesthetics

Oh, Pan

Come

Strong as a Lion

Slender as a Serpent

Give me the opened eye Sign

And the word of madness and mystery

Come

With flute and fife

Whirling and smiling

Diving into the universe

O eternal lust and dance

I'm a man in the force of Pan

Oh, Pan
