~*First Time*~

See, normally a brother wouldnt talk about his first time But Im gonna just be real with ya'll and say whats on my mind
I remember just like yesterday
Just a lil man
I had no clue, just quite didn't understand Looked up to big bro for a little advice and he said young bro whatever you do, just make sure you strap twice
I was a little nervous about it, being my first time but I said what the hell this girl is too damn fine

(CHORUS)

My very first time in the house, on the couch, in your parents bedroom, remember
My very first time
Cant wait til the day when I see you again, remember
My very first time,
and it was just as special to me as it was to you girl
My very first time,
never forget my first time

See it was sunday afternoon Moms and pops were gone
We had to be on the low, cuz they were on their way home Started kissing then it led straight to the bed I can't believe this happening, that's what i'm thinking in my head Lasted like a minute but seemed like forever we almost got caught but im just too damn cleva Parents came home from church and I was outta there like a drop of a dime Man I will never forget my first time

This goes out to the first and you know who you are I will see you again (see you again) and no matter how old we both get, no regrets I will never forget my first time

REPEAT CHORUS

See some of you mighta started early, some of you started late but I know when I started, and I thought it was great This goes out to all my little brothers in the world
Make sure your first time is with that special girl Clap your hands if you remember your first time, your first time
clap your hands if you remember your first time, your first time BABY!

REPEAT CHORUS TWICE
