Just a wish away, 27th letter
Much maligned, beat me clever
Say you will never mind
Open up, open wide

Bonedriven, bonedriven
See we're taking all the life

To all pollutants shave your face
We're all confusion, we're all the rage
Isolate, crowded out
All that's left, inside out

Heaven knows who walks away
Heaven knows who walks, walks

Bonedriven, bonedriven
See we're taking all the life
Bonedriven, bonedriven
See we're taking all the life

And I was wrong and I will wait
I was wrong and I will wait
I was wrong and I will, I will, I will wait

A thousand, a thousand lamps
Won't lift the dark
The rest of our lives
Might have already passed

Bonedriven, bonedriven
See we're taking all the life
Bonedriven, bonedriven
See we're taking all the life
See we're taking all the life
