Understand the struggle, my status is far above you,
Your sub par and ignorant, and heres the difference, I put my stress on these tracks, exposing my innocence, while you fabricate your world, money and independence,
Ive previewed life, your future already exist in my past, Ive been where you look forward to, you stare through the glass, Ive already said this, distorted the image, givin the negatives,
The facts is precedent, and most of you catz cant handle it,
This world is grimy, a str8 toilet, your swimming in shit, I leave the seat fresh, nice feces and youre here to please me,
My name Killer is symbolic, ironic to the actual meaning,
I destroy clowns lyrically, but you still find it demeaning,
Im at a Critical state in my world and uncoiling the truth
You have honestly reached pinnacles, but I consider that tabloid news,

Chorus

I find the world harsh, None dependable, trying to a make a friend of you, the world holds you back and your life is Expendable.

Verse 2

Killer

Ive met with the worst, the best at committing the crimes...
The vainest prison inmates, and most consistent with nines,

Bush

We them Satanist murderous, burglars, and deranged in public,
Toxic to child intuition, pushing for war, you cant touch us

Killer

We release hideous rapist, let them savagely rage pain on earth,
We promote abortion clinic bombings, fuck you and you birth,

Bush

Read the name and stare in my eyes, your 18 then pack your bags,
Your off to fight in my war, support uncle sam over in Bagdad,

Killer

You sign up or We put one in your dome, cuz yeah we are prone...
To roll in the back of your Ford Truck and follow you home
