"Head Full of Ghosts"

i stand around at american weddings
i stand around for family at my best when i'm terrorist inside at my best when it's all me i was there when they took all the people i was alone in a mental revine you breathe life when you break the walls down you breathe life when you set me free where is my head

where are my bones
why are my days so far from home?
where are my bones
can you save me from myself?

free thinking renegade social missed the moon, the man and now in a slip stream of my poseferities? i got the boat so we don't drown these are the days that are split down the middle no words to calm me down be sure that what you dream of won't come to hunt you out

[chorus]

where are my bones
why are my days so far from home?
ghost man
where are my bones
how come we get so lost?
where are my bones

ghost man

[chorus]
