Hey, hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, hey
She's a dreamer, she's a dreamer
She's a dreamer, let her dream
She's a dancer, she's a dancer
She's a dancer, let her dance
He's a thinker, he's a thinker
He's a thinker, let him think
I'm a worrier, I'm a worrier
I worry, don't you worry about me
You set the world on fire
I see the buildings fall, the city is all ablaze
All the madmen came today
All the madmen came today
Hey, hey, hey, hey
She's a stallion, she's a stallion
She's a stallion, let her run
She's a savior, she's a savior
She's a saint, let her save
He's a madman, he's a madman
He's a madman who drive you mad
He's a good one, he's a good one
He's a good one, let him through
You set the world on fire
I see the buildings fall, the city is all ablaze
All the madmen came today
All the madmen came today
We are human after all
We are human after all
She's a stallion, she's a stallion
She's a stallion, let her run
She's a savior, she's a savior
She's a saint, let her save
You set the world on fire
I see the buildings fall, the city is all ablaze
All the madmen came today
All the madmen came today
You set the world on fire
I see the buildings fall, the city is all ablaze
All the madmen came today
All the madmen came today
Got to get you out, got to get you out

Out of the system
Get it all out, get it all out
Baby, you glisten
Hey, hey, hey, hey
Got to get you out, got to get you out
Out of the system
