Deal with this
I ain't gonna let it go
Down or not? Out or in?
First think about it then decide
This is bigger than you can imagine
More than fashion ... let's call it...conviction
Be honest...what the fuck you want from me?
I made it all by myself
None of you was there throughout the years
You kept your good company-we didn't need your help
Once you were the king but now we're the ace
Man I ain't no thug
And I will never be Better keep your mouth shut
'Cause this is for real
I outplay any single one of you
Hell yeah fool now it's coming back on you
Be honest what the fuck you want from me?
None of you was there throughout the years
Now I'll take it all at once
What's left for you is to quit
One last thing I can say
Your girl has really nice tits
Once you were the king but now we're the fuckin ace
