Our true reign has come
The undeniable truth
Resurrects in everlasting fury
Enflames our loyal hearts
A unified frontline
Destined to prevail
The eternal fundament for our supremacy
We take your lines by storm
Until none of you remain
For you aren't worth
The soil you're made upon
You get smashed back in
As our revenge so bitter sweet
As one we stand in honour
No chance to break through
Expect your false truths
To be cast into dust
As one we stand in honour
Strength floating through our veins
The dead burning sky
Marks the day of your demise
Retaliation-a moment of strength
As you look in the eyes of redemption
The day my body falls to ashes
my believes reborn in flames
