Suffocated Aspiration
I bled for my blind trust
In a world of agony
That revels in disgust
Looks into shallow faces
Just hypocrites I see
Give strength to my will
And my sincere decision
To kill the pain that's caused
By this world's betrayal
Its distrust and hatred
Breeching to my soul
Will find their response
In my ruthless vengeance
Dishonour's bloodstained knife
Will cut their throats
Arousing a world downfall
As daylight suffers- silently
A bringer of salvation
It's spreading my black wings
Looks into shallow faces
Just hypocrites I see
Give strength to my will
And my sincere decision
Until the end
That I bring to you
You shall hail
Unto my wings of doom
My endless wrath
Lacerates your skies
My obscure paths
Mean your demise
