I tried to tell them all before
They wouldn't listen, they want more
Take, take, take, regret it
This is how we all feel better
Alert the people, tell the truth
One grieving nation under you Kiss their mouths and shake their...
Enemies make us feel better

Why can't I just say there will be a day when everyone will hear the truth?
Never in this world will we lose control of you

Adjust the picture, make it clear
It's televised, excite the fear
Never-ending glory
Write it down then tell your story
This war in terror reads so right
It helps the people sleep at night
Yes, it was invented
But enemies make us feel better

Why can't I just say there will be a day when everyone
will hear the truth?
