"Last Second"

One thousand days for each one
Are you ready for what is to come?
Have you prepared your heart?
Don't wait until the last second
You reap what you sow
Don't sow wrongful oats
No matter what
You will get what is yours
One thousand days for each one
Are you ready for what is to come?
Have you prepared your heart?
Don't wait until the last second
You reap what you sow
Don't sow wrongful oats
No matter what
You will get what is yours
Everything you have
Everything you've worked so hard for
Everything you know
Everything will fade away
One thing will remain
One thing will remain on that day
