We're gonna hit 'em and we're gonna hit 'em hard
(hit'em hard)
We're gonna give you a war you won't believe
We're gonna hit 'em and we're gonna hit 'em hard
(hit'em hard)
We're gonna hit 'em and we're gonna tear them apart
Tear it apart
I'll lose a thousand battles
But I'll win the war
Come the final showdown
I'll settle the score
Give me the strength to break away
And I'll burn these idols to the ground
I've fought and lost for for too long
One by one they'll fall

As I grow closer to you
This war will rage no more
Once we understand
We're only fighting ourselves
In the end
Now is the time
To realize and ask yourself
If this is my fate
Will I stand in victory?
Brace yourself
Prepare yourself
Brace yourself for war
This is the end
This is your final showdown
I'll lose a thousand battles
But I'll win the war
Come the final showdown
He'll even out the score
