Let's go
One blow to the face
I reach back for more
Knocked down again and again
My teeth scattered on the floor
With nothing left
I pull myself up and stand
Sometimes nothing can be a real cool hand
Failure's not something that I condone
You'll never be anything to me
I'm coming out with all my might

I see the end in sight
I'm coming out with all my might
I won't go down without a fight
Even on my worst day
There is one thing that stays true
He picks me up
So I don't fall into you
If I stand or if I fall
I give it my all
When death is gain
What do I have to prove?
