We all can't be innocent.
So please don't make me tell you again.
Changing the rules, just so you can win.

As hard as may, try I know...
I can't take this anymore

You say these words I've heard a thousand times.
Denying the truth I can read between the lines, the

As I'm running with all that I have, and all I have is might.
The stars up in the sky, won't shine so bright tonight.
And I'm running with all I have, all I... have!
I'll regret this one later. When there's no chance in leaving me.
I'll regret this one later, when there's no chance of walking away without A...
