Bring back hollow reputations.
It's giving me what I desire.
And I desire, To find the words you need, to hear.

Kill. Kill. Kill.
Your demons.
Face. Face. Face.
Your fears.
Fight. Fight.
With no discretion.

I am the messenger; And I am the one you trust with your last breath.
And you're missing the point.
You're missing the point of these words.

I hope you see your own life flash before your eyes.
And find that point, In your life when you realize.
That there is more to life than living.

(Kill. Kill. Kill.
Your demons.
Face. Face. Face.
Your fears.
Fight. Fight.
With no discretion.

I am the messenger; I am the one you trust with your last breath.
And I'm betting you'll find, I'm betting you'll find a way to.
Why aren't you trying to escape?

You say you need a great purpose,
I say you need to see what's coming.
