

In Fear And Faith

"We Have Strength In Numbers"

This goes out to everyone who is sick and tired,
Of being prosecuted for your faith.
This is more than just a song,
More like a ballad for those who want to be free.

This is about gathering together against the ones who said,
That you can't be whoever you want to be.
So are you ready to stand up for yourself?
And show the world what you really think?
Then raise your voice and let them know exactly who you are.
This is all of our family cause this right here, this is a family!

I can't believe that this happening,
A million others can't breathe.
We follow everything I said,
These words are words to live by.
We have the power, the strength in numbers,
Your eyes are open, but can you see without the light?

So do you notice that cut at your side?
Do you feel the pain? Do you feel alive?
We walk these paths side by side,
We will be ok, we will be alive.

And as we gather together,
To face the ones who oppose us,
We have one thing left to say.

We are not of this world.
Your time is up now.
We are not of this world.
Forgive and be forgiven,
For we are not of this world.

I can finally say this is the way.
This was worth fighting, worth fighting for.
