Reach for your razor
Cut through the dawn
Through your inner wrath
Keys shan't open the doors

Behold, my heart has stopped
My lungs are laid, the final rest
But still I see, what do I feel

Yes, but to earthly eyes, I am gone
To the lands where legends never die
Take me to the twilight land tonight

Again and again and again, every night
The darkness climbs through my walls
Where the screaming is silent to the corrupted ear

Never to any man I will speak
My speech, it has no value
Eyes have seen the sights
Bleed through the ages eternal

I ask no more
A life has just begun
Never will I see the sun
And do I miss it?

No, my eyes are black
Emotions fled through eyelids closed
Throne of thorns
Clad in shadows
