I'll take you on a ride
As a part-owner to my pain
Our ideals they collide
Coerced co-existence

I fought the world today
Postpone my birth again
We stumble on and on
But bound to die alone

Pine, I'm selling my soul today
Pine, I need some sympathy

This infiltrates my brain
"In the sunshine the sun is mine"
Pitiless wanderer
Close your eyes and bow your head

Grotesque thoughts in a line
Threw my wings into the blazing sun
Smile stretched on old trees
Eternal brining jester masque

Pine, I'm selling my soul today
Pine, I need some sympathy

Don't hurt a fly, they all sing
We're just ants in a great big play
Commercialize, infect, annihilate, progress
Visualize, inhale, pretend, betray

I'll take you on a ride
As a part-owner to my pain
I'm selling my soul today
Pine, I need some sympathy

Don't hurt a fly, they all sing
We're just ants in a great big play
Commercialize, infect, annihilate, progress
Visualize, inhale, pretend, betray
